

Silent retreat of teachings and meditation

with

Ajahn Sucitto

From november 5 to 12, 2022

Ajahn Sucitto was born in London in 1949. His first encounter with Buddhism occurs through Japanese literature. The search for a meaning in life makes him undertake a long journey to the East. He spent some time in India and then, in 1975, he arrived in Thailand in the Chiang Mai region. He quickly decided to engage in monastic life and spent three years in Thailand where he met Ajahn Sumedho whom he found on returning home in 1978 and from whom he decided to stay, assuming the responsibility of publishing and publication of his teachings as well as other Sangha publications. He himself publishes many books available for free distribution. <http://ajahnsucitto.org/>

Ajahn Sucitto was among those who founded "Cittaviveka", the Chithurst Monastery, in 1979. In 1981, he also helped establish a Northumberland vihara, "Aruna Ratanagiri".

In 1984, he became part of the community that began the Buddhist monastery "Amaravati" became the center of the "Sangha Forest" in north-west London.

For thirty-five years, Sucitto Bhikkhu has been teaching and running retreats in Europe, USA, South Africa, Australia. From 1992 to 2014, he assumed responsibility for the Chithurst Monastery.

THEME OF THE RETREAT

"Energy, Vitality and Right Effort"

We need energy, it keeps us alive and healthy in body and mind. When much energy is used in activity, how can we refresh our energy in being alive and aware? And what is the effort that gives us purpose without straining after goals?

LOCATION

Located in Haute Provence, Moustiers Sainte-Marie is titled Un Des Plus Beaux Village de France (one of The Most Beautiful Villages of France).

The village enjoys an exceptional setting surrounded by the Gorges du Verdon, the Sainte-Croix lake and the lavender fields of the Valensole plateau. Moustiers has a rich history in ceramic craftsmanship and the faïence is renowned for its fine decoration.

DANA GIVING

- According to the Buddhist tradition, monks and nuns do not demand any remuneration,
- In keeping with a tradition that has been perpetuated for more than 2500 years, the teachings are offered without consideration.
- Participants are invited to make a free donation to the teacher's monastery
  - In this tradition the practice of generosity is an integral part of the way.
- Remember that the monasteries are totally dependent on the generosity of the laity and that the monks give us the most important gift: that of the Dhamma.

"To find happiness in the offering rather than the acquisition causes a complete reversal of the attitude towards life"
